Matters Arising from the Minutes of 02 May 2017

MIN

4. Parking Issues - the issue of Parking on the junction of Bond Street/Church Road, have again been brought to the attention of the police, who have asked to be notified of any repeat offenders. SNC has advised that there can be no enforcement of parking areas in the Market Place as they are unrestricted. Enquiries are being made to NCC regarding the provision of disabled parking by the Chemist and Public Toilets.

16. Church Clock fault still under investigation.

17. Four tree guards have been made, (for young oak on the Fairland and the new oaks that will be planted later this year

34. Community Infrastructure Levy money - South Norfolk Council have advised that this money cannot be used to fund investments. It should be kept within a bank account until it is spent on a relevant project or the time to do so expires (in which case the money may be reclaimed by South Norfolk Council).
